£15.50

THE ANVIL, BASINGSTOKE
RG21 7QR
FRONT DOORS OPEN at approx. 9.30am

1918 - 2018

Why did it take so insufferably long for women to get the vote?

London. 1918.

Mikron Theatre Company will entertain us with 'Revolting Women'.

They will tell the Suffrage story through the eyes of a less well-known Pankhurst, Sylvia, who fought for the vote alongside working women in the East End. Sylvia meets Lettie and together they push to Parliament, to bend the ear of the Cabinet. Full of political satire, Revolting Women unravels a contentious and momentous movement in history. Not to be missed!
