

A Judge's Eye View

Have you ever entered a WI competition and wondered how the judge came to a conclusion?
Experienced the frustration and confusion on results day at the New Forest Show?
Well here is your chance to get a Judge's eye view of what is going on.

Our very own WI Judge Angela Brice will give an overview of being a WI judge, what they look for and give an insight into judging WI competitions. After tea and coffee Angela will critique a few of your competition craft items and explain the judges' possible thoughts, and marks. It will be an interesting morning, hopefully demystifying the judging process and giving some tips for entering WI competitions. Profits from this event will be split between the New Forest Show Committee and the Federation both of which support WI competitions.
