Madge Watt
The founder of ACWW

Magdie de Kock
The World President 2019-2022

90 years separate these two remarkable women

The past and future of ACWW

We are delighted to inform members that Magdie de Kock, elected as the current World President will be attending this meeting. In the afternoon, she will be able to tell you of her hopes and dreams for the future of ACWW. Tish Collins is also able to attend when she will explain the new fundraising procedure for Projects and you will have a chance to voice how you would like Hampshire Federation to proceed. The morning will be taken up with reporting on the 29th Triennial Conference, which took place in Melbourne Australia from 4 to 10 April. You will hear from each member who attended, from someone who had never attended a conference before, to the Main speakers; the details and voting of the 14 Global resolutions. We hope to be able to recreate the comoraderie, the friendship and warmth of the meeting. Tea, coffee, refreshments and lunch will be served but please let us know if you have any dietary requirements so these can be catered for.

ACWW DAY
