-A Royal Christmas-

Royal Christmas: The German customs of the Victorian royal family became the basis of the English Christmas we know today. This talk explores Christmas at court from the Middle Ages to the present day and how the royals have influenced our own celebrations.

Siobhan Clarke, B.A. (Hons) has been a Guide Lecturer for Historic Royal Palaces for 20 years. She has featured on BBC Radio Women's Hour and Television's Secrets of Henry VIII's Palace. Her published work includes: A Tudor Christmas, in collaboration with Alison Weir, and her latest book is King and Collector: Henry VIII and the Art of Kingship, published by The History Press in April 2021
